If you have visited the Pea Ridge National Military Park, you are well-aware of the special “gem” of a historic park we have here in Northwest Arkansas. You are also familiar with the benefits of the self-guided tour and the recreational offerings the Park affords our Northwest Arkansas community. Pea Ridge National Military Park is one of the few National Park Battlefields being restored to resemble the way it appeared during the Battle of Pea Ridge in March, 1862. The Pea Ridge Foundation is a non-profit organization which exists to provide support for the Pea Ridge National Military Park where the Federal Government budget stops.

The sesquicentennial anniversary of the Battle of Pea Ridge is quickly approaching in 2012. The Foundation is commemorating the 150th anniversary with a series of Civil War Heritage Festivals. Five annual reunions are scheduled to raise awareness about the Park and to raise funds to acquire the Andy Thomas oil painting collection depicting the Battle of Pea Ridge, available for viewing at the Park and at www.pearidgefoundation.com.

The Festival general sponsorships are available at levels from $35 - $25,000. Every sponsor will be recognized in media publicity and at the 2-Day Festival. The sponsorship form is attached for your consideration.

Please give thoughtful consideration to helping us serve more families in Northwest Arkansas – sharing with them our unique Arkansas heritage through this historic location and the associated events for the Festival. Call today to sponsor and to reserve your place at this exciting, "don't miss" Festival! You can reach the Foundation at pearidgefoundation@gmail.com or call 479-903-6334 to sponsor. Thank you for sharing in this great opportunity for our area families.

Sincerely,

Gene Williams

The mission of Pea Ridge National Military Park Foundation is to educate the public on the Civil War significance of the park and how the park can be used as a family destination for enjoyment, fitness and education. The Foundation's aim is to raise awareness of the additional support required to help provide and preserve the natural, historical and cultural environment of the park through personal involvement.

Our goal is to raise funds to complete various projects that will enhance the park's appeal to the general public. The Pea Ridge National Military Park Foundation is a 501-C-3 non-profit organization.
